

THE DEAN'S DISTINGUISHED SPEAKER SERIES presents

with Danielle Allen and Rob Reich in conversation with Dean Marcelo Suárez-Orozco

Danielle Allen, the UPS Foundation Professor of the School of Social Science at the Institute for Advanced Study in Princeton, and Rob Reich, Associate Professor of Political Science at Stanford University, will discuss with Dean Marcelo Suárez-Orozco how education, policy, and citizenship can play a key role in meeting the challenges of developing and governing an education system that works for all students.

Professor Allen is a MacArthur Fellowship recipient and directs The Democratic Knowledge Project. Associate Professor Reich is Co-Director of the Center on Philanthropy and Civil Society.

Event Details

Date: Monday, October 6, 2014

Time: 3:00 p.m. reception
4:00 p.m. lecture

Location: Carnesale Commons,
Palisades Room, UCLA Campus

Parking: Complimentary parking available in Sunset Village and Parking Structure 4

Please RSVP by October 2, 2014

To RSVP, please visit:

www.allenreichat UCLA.eventbrite.com

Admission is free. Seating is limited; space will fill quickly.

UCLA Graduate School of Education
& Information Studies

events@gseis.ucla.edu | (310) 206-0375

About their latest book

Education, Justice, & Democracy will be on sale at the event. The book explores how education can support democracy and advance justice. Copies of Danielle Allen's June release, Our Declaration: A Reading of the Declaration of Independence in Defense of Equality, will also be on sale.

