The UCLA Graduate School of Education and Information Studies and the UCLA Women's School Leadership Academy (WSLA) present

The Courage to Lead
Women's Narratives in Times of Crisis

"Courage is the most important of all virtues, because without it we can't practice any other virtue with consistency." - Maya Angelou

Joanne Culverhouse, Ed.D.
Moderator
Superintendent,
La Habra City Schools

Cristina de Jesus, Ed.D.
President & CEO, Green Dot
Public Schools California

Lolli Lucas, Ed.D.
Assistant Head,
Buckley School

Erin Richison, Ed.D.
Senior Director, District and
School Improvement, San Diego
County Office of Education

JOIN US FOR AN ENGAGING WEBINAR
Thursday, October 22, 2020–5pm PT
Register Here

• What does courageous leadership look like at the start of the pandemic and in its continuing phases?
• What does courageous leadership look like in meeting the challenges of Black Lives Matter in schools?

UCLA Women's School Leadership Academy (WSLA)

UCLA WSLA is a pioneering leadership program for women. It provides courageous women leaders with the tools and knowledge they need to be more impactful educational leaders. For more information contact Linda Rose, Ph.D. (lrose@g.ucla.edu) or visit www.gseis.ucla.edu/education/academies/elp-wsla/